Sicilia Bianco "Pietra Nera" Sicilia M. de Bartoli Org V 2020 £ 61.0
 100 % Zibibbo grapes. Pantelleria's nature is as complex as Marco's was. But he managed, in that wonderfully challenging terroir, to be the first to imagine that Zibibbo grapes could also successfully be vinified as a dry wine. Pietranera's grapes are grown in north-facing vineyards in Cufurà district, and produce a wine with enviable mineral notes that is aromatic, intense and complex.

Vitovska Friuli Skerk Org V 2018 £ 73.0
 100% Vitovska grapes. The Vitovska variety is apparently a cross between Prosecco Tondo and Malvasia Bianca Lunga grapes. The grapes macerate in contact with their skins and ferment with their native yeasts. The resulting wine is aged in barrels at a controlled temperature before being bottled without filtering or adding sulphites.

100% Nebbiolo grapes. Plenty of fruit to back up the chewy, round tannin structure. Full bodied with long powerful finish.
Nobile di Montepulciano Magnum	Toscana	Boscarelli	2018	£ 129.0
100% Sangiovese grosso. Harmonic wine, ethereal bouquet, extraordinarily elegant with hints of violets and wood, spice with hints of woodsmoke and tobacco.
Darmagi	Piemonte	Gaja	1983	£ 390.0
100% Cabernet Sauvignon grapes, Produced from a single 2.5-hectare vineyard planted in 1978 directly beneath the town of Barbaresco, Darmagi was Angelo Gaja's homage to the noble Cabernet Sauvignon grapes. A wine renowned for its firm structure early in its life, this example from 1983 should be just about reaching its peak.
Les Terrasses	Priorat/Spain	Alvaro Palacio	1998	£ 140.0
Garnacha grapes blend, Typically quite dark in colour, with a high alcohol, and blackberry and fig notes. Spicy accents along with mineral, espresso, orange peel and savory notes are common as well
Flor de Pingus	Ribera del Duero/Spain	Domínio de Pingus	2011	£ 320.0
Tempranillo grapes, riper than other 2011s from Sisseck, with aromas of ripe plums, dark cherries, cinnamon and cloves with a slight lactic touch. The palate is full-bodied, lush and round with plenty of glycerin but fresh flavors and good balancing acidity. A powerful, slightly warm vintage of Flor.
Vega Sicilia "Unico"	Ribera del Duero/Spain	Vega Sicilia	2005	£ 820.0
Cabernet sauvignon and Tempranillo grapes, Explosively perfumed aromas of fresh ripe and red fruits, floral oils, pipe tobacco and incense take on sexy vanilla and woodsmoke nuances as the wine open up. Densely packed yet shockingly lithe on the palate. offering intense cherry liqueur, red currant and spicecake flavors given spine by a core of juicy acidity. Shows superb energy and clarity finishing sweet, smoky and extremely long; velvety tannins and gentle grip.
